In an effort to strengthen strategic partnership relations between South Africa and the United Arab Emirates (UAE), Tourism Minister Lindiwe Sisulu has engaged with...
Cabo Verde set to host hybrid 2021 African economic conference on financing development in the Covid-19 era

Southern Africa is set for an economic rebound in 2021 and 2022, provided the Covid-19 pandemic tapers off, according to a report published by the African Development Bank (www.AfDB.org). Like southern Africa set for economic rebound, but impact of Covid-19 lingers

The global economy could suffer a modest blow. The U.K. is among several countries that have halted flights from some southern African countries. A Covid-19 testing center at London’s...